TARIFF REPORT
BY UNDERWOOD

What Democratic Tariff Bill
Now Before Congress Will Save to American Consumer
Is Here Set Forth.

IS HUNDRED MILLION

(By C. H. TAVENNER, Member Congress.)

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The report on the Ways and Means Committee on the Underwood tariff bill has been published. For the benefit of those who talk tariff with their neighbors, I will give briefly some of the salient facts brought out in the report.

Since 1887 the wholesale prices of all commodities used by the American people have advanced an average of 47 per cent. But some of the prime necessities of life have advanced much beyond that average. For instance farm products have increased 83 per cent. The increased cost of clothing is 96 per cent and house furnishings 55 per cent.

At the same time there have been growing up under the fostering care of successive protective laws agricultural trusts dealing in the necessities of life. The Underwood report names 234 of these industrial combinations with a total capitalization of nearly nine billion dollars.

Another effect of protective tariffs is the resultant waste of the natural resources of the United States—resources which, when once exhausted can never be restored. With foreign lumber, ores and minerals barred from importation by prohibitive duties, we have been exhausting our own at a ruinous rate.

While industries within the country are rapidly becoming monopolized and competition is being smothered, there has been no spur of foreign competition to make our trusts adopt the most efficient manufacturing methods. Obsolete plants, old machinery and out-of-date methods, have been practically eliminated in foreign countries, exist in this country. This is waste, and the public pays for it.

BOY DASHES INTO BURNING HOUSE; SAVES PLAYMATE AND BABE HE TRIED TO RESCUE

When Paul Veach, twelve years old, rushed into a burning house in Indianapolis the other day, to save a baby, he fell, overcome by the smoke, with the babe in his arms. His playmate, thirteen-year-old Johnny Mitchell, came after him and dragged to safety both boy and baby.

cry dollar of it.

In the new bill the rates on perfumes, fine chinaware, automobiles, jewelry, tobacco, oriental rugs, Paris hats and other luxuries have been increased or maintained; the present rates on such necessities as lumber, soap, cutlery, sugar, meat, flour, cotton and wool, clothing, paper and shoes have been greatly reduced or done away with altogether. Necessary ties placed on a free list will make a total annual saving to the American consumer of close to $100,000,000; while there will be other vast savings in duties which have been reduced. The Republican theory of placing duties which shall equalize the difference in costs of production at home and abroad, has been rejected for the reason that, to quote the report, "a duty which equalizes this

Butter contains water and salt
Cottolene
is 100% shortening

When you buy butter for cooking purposes, you are paying for 25% water and salt; you get but 75% real shortening value. In Cottolene you get 100% shortening.

Cottolene costs much less than good butter—and gives just as good results in shortening and frying. Cottolene is as cheap or cheaper than lard—gives better results—and is absolutely healthful, which is more than can be said of lard.

Cottolene is economical, because one-third less is required than of either butter or lard.

average difference, protects no one, since it is more than is needed by the efficient producer, and less than is needed by the least efficient producer.

As a matter of fact, because of American machinery, and efficient American workmanship, cost of production here is no greater than it is abroad.

The committee, however, recognizes that even in efficient factories there are workers who must be protected from the hardships of a business panic. So the revision has been made gradual, so that these factories may gradually become efficient.

GOGGLES MAKE HIM
GREAT SUNFIELDER

Jimmy Johnson—Top, without, and below, with 'em.

The fearsome object here depicted tearing up the sod is not a saucer-eyed monster of Grimm's Fairy Tale descent. It is merely mild-mannered Jimmy Johnson of the St. Louis Browns with his sunfield goggles on. Johnson last year played for the Montgomery team of the Southern League, ranking second in batting with a .320 mark and leading in fielding with a perfect percentage in 64 games. Johnson is keeping up his good work in select circles and should startle some of the veterans.

MAY DAY PARADE IN GOTHAM

NEW YORK, May 1.—May Day was observed in the metropolis today by the customary parade of the Socialist organizations and various East Side trades unions. The parade started from Rutgers Square in the early afternoon and proceeded through Broadway and several other of the prominent downtown thoroughfares. Many of the trades were represented by men wearing distinctive uniforms. A feature of the parade was a wagon bearing a load of bread baked from three barrels of flour and a cake of like dimensions.
